

Instructions

Online Educational Programs on School Threat Assessment

1. Programs for students, parents, and teachers. There are 3 short programs for students, parents, and teachers that explain what threat assessment is and how it works, with an emphasis on encouraging threat reporting.
2. Programs for team members. There are three programs for team members covering TAT basics, differences between school discipline and threat assessment, and principles of case management following a threat assessment
3. Who is eligible to use the programs? The programs are available to all students, parents, and teachers/staff at no charge.
4. What do participants do? Participants will participate anonymously in an online educational program and answer questions about what they have learned. The programs run approximately 15 minutes for students, 25 minutes for parents, and 25 minutes for teachers and staff. Threat assessment team members have three programs that run 25, 20, and 30 minutes, respectively. Data from the programs may be used for evaluation purposes.
5. Who created these programs? These programs were developed by Dewey Cornell, Jennifer Maeng, and colleagues at the University of Virginia with support by Grant #NIJ 2014-CK-BX-0004 awarded by the National Institute of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this report are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of the Department of Justice

Confidential Link and Codes for REVIEW ONLY

Program Link: <http://www.schoolthreatassessment.com/>

Each school system can obtain its own codes. The codes below are for use ONLY to review the program in order to decide whether to use it.

Code to review student program:	vs3fcf
Code to review teacher program:	vtlsxh
Code to review parent program:	vpnm9q
Code to review team programs 1-2-3:	vm6dbt

We recommend that schools use all of the programs, but schools can decide to use one or more of the programs. After reviewing, obtain the codes for your school system. In this way we can send you results for your school system.

Contact Dr. Jennifer Maeng to obtain a code for your school system.
